

Neighbour Day

Supported by

ACT
Government

Relationships Australia®

Stories from Neighbours

Whether through a cuppa, a picnic in the park, or a message of support; Neighbour Day is the perfect opportunity to say thanks for being a great neighbour and for being there to lend a hand.

1. “We put invitations in the neighbour’s mail boxes to meet on the street at a certain time. We brought our own beverages and some food to share around. It has made our street so much nicer to live in — we know each other better now and it’s easier to look after each other when we need it.”
2. “We met our neighbours outside and after we exchanged hellos, we introduced ourselves as a new neighbour and offered a cup of tea. They accepted our offer and visited us and brought home made apple cake. We chatted and giggled and offered to keep an eye on their property when they are away and take the rubbish bin out if they are out of town.”
3. “I knocked on the door of my elderly neighbour to make sure they were warm and coping well last winter. Now I have a friend for all seasons — not just winter.”

“A connected community is a safe community”