

Neighbour Day founder selected to run in the Olympic Torch Relay

The founder of Australia's Neighbour Day, Andrew Heslop, has been selected to run in the Olympic Torch Relay through Canberra on Thursday 24th April 2008.

"I am honoured to have been chosen as a Samsung Torch Relay Ambassador for founding, developing and promoting Neighbour Day. Carrying the Olympic Flame is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and I am excited to be part of its journey to Beijing.

"Neighbour Day's values of tolerance, respect and understanding of the people who live around us are underpinned by the global aims of the Olympic Movement. To be part of the Olympic experience in Canberra is the highlight of my life," said Andrew.
