

28th September 2010

Letter to the Editor

NOW that Prime Minister Julia Gillard and partner Tim Mathieson have moved into The Lodge, it's time for them to meet their new neighbours.

While Neighbour Day isn't until Sunday, March 27, 2011 they could simply stop by the residents who live closest and say g'day.

Our first couple could bring a freshly baked cake or a couple of jars of jams, pickles or preserves.

Or some local Canberra wine.

The ninth annual Neighbour Day next year is the perfect day for Julia and Tim to have the neighbours around for a barbecue to celebrate their community.

Will you agree, Prime Minister?

Andrew Heslop
Founder & CEO, Neighbour Day